

Documentation for joint place of residence abroad

As surviving common-law partner, you may be entitled to a lump sum from ATP Livslang Pension. You must document that you and the deceased had a joint place of residence in the two years preceding the death. Here, you can read what ATP Livslang Pension requires as documentation from different countries.

SWEDEN

You must order a population registration certificate ('personbevis') for you and the deceased from the Swedish Tax Agency (Skatteverket). Read more at www.skatteverket.se.

NORWAY

You must order the address information from the Norwegian National Registry for you and the deceased from the Norwegian Tax Administration (Skatteetaten). Read more at www.skatteetaten.no

FINLAND

You must order the address information for you and the deceased from the Finnish Population Register Centre, Väestörekisterikeskus. Read more at www.vrk.fi

ICELAND

You must order the address information for you and the deceased from the Icelandic Population Register, Þjóðskrá Íslands.

Read more at www.skra.is

GERMANY

You must order the address information for you and the deceased from the local national register office/citizen service centre, Einwohnermeldeämte.

SPAIN

You must order the address information for you and the deceased from the local national register office.

Read more about the local offices at www.ine.es

OTHER COUNTRIES

You need to contact a competent authority in your country of residence, which will issue a certificate for the address, such as a central or local national register office, for you and the deceased. Please enclose the name and contact details of the authority.

Please send the information to ATP Livslang Pension, Kongens Vænge 8, 3400 Hillerød, Denmark.

You can also submit the information at www.borger.dk/atp-kontakt.