Orientation on the elderly cheque for state pensioners

If the Danish pension you receive is an early pension, and if you do not live in an EU-country, in Norway, Liechtenstein or Switzerland, please disregard this orientation.

You received the elderly cheque in 2018

If you have received the elderly cheque from Udbetaling Danmark, International Pension in 2018 do not do anything. The elderly cheque will be paid to you together with your pension for the month of January 2019 if you still qualify for it.

You did not receive the elderly cheque in 2018

If you have not received the elderly cheque in 2018, you can apply for it.

What is an elderly cheque?

It is a supplementary pension allowance to which you may be entitled if

- you were entitled to a Danish state pension on 31 December 2018
- you live in an EU-country, in Norway, Iceland, Liechtenstein or Switzerland.

What to do?

If you want to apply for the elderly cheque fill in the enclosed application form and return it to us:

Udbetaling Danmark
International Pension
Kongens Vænge 8
DK-3400 Hillerød

Your application must come to hand not later than 31 July 2019. If it comes to hand at a later date, there will be no investigation of your claim.

The elderly cheque is for the financially disadvantaged only

The elderly cheque is payable only to financially disadvantaged state pensioners. For our assessment of your entitlement, both available assets and incomes are taken into consideration. You do not qualify for any elderly cheque, if

- the available fortune held by you and your spouse or cohabitee, if any, totals an amount of 87.700 DKK or above as at 1 January 2019, or if
- your personal supplement rate is zero

What is the amount of the elderly cheque?

For 2019, the max amount of the cheque is 17.500 DKK. Its amount is subject to reduction for available assets and income. If the state pension due to you is payable by a fraction, any elderly cheque due to you will be payable by the same fraction. Where the amount due is less than 200 DKK, no elderly cheque will be paid.

Yours sincerely,
Udbetaling Danmark

How Udbetaling Danmark – Public Benefits Administration processes your personal data

When you apply for or receive pension, you consent to Udbetaling Danmark processing some pieces of your information. This information is also called personal data.

In the following, you can learn more about how we process personal data and your rights in that connection.

What type of data does Udbetaling Danmark process?

We only collect and process information necessary for our processing of your case. The purpose is to ensure that you get the benefits to which you are entitled.

Udbetaling Danmark processes the personal data included in your application and your case. It may e.g. be your civil registration number, information about your home, your assets, your income and your live-in relationship, which we obtain from the Danish national register, the tax administration or your bank.

Udbetaling Danmark also processes your civil registration number for the purpose of the banks' advice on pension matters.

How does Udbetaling Danmark process your personal data?

Udbetaling Danmark may exchange information with other authorities, employers, banks etc. when this is necessary to process your case or otherwise when we are under an obligation to do so. We process your information based on the Act on Udbetaling Danmark – Public Benefits Administration and other acts (legal framework further below).

We can disclose information about you to other public authorities, foreign authorities and private individuals who are entitled to receive the information under the law or with whom we cooperate. We may obtain, share and combine some pieces of information without asking you:

- We may share information with the municipal authorities for the purpose of recalculating, offsetting, performing other follow-up or checking the payment of benefits, you may not be entitled to.
 - We may obtain information from other authorities and unemployment funds if this is necessary to decide your case, and we can ask the municipal authorities to check your wage and salary payments.
 - We may obtain information from other authorities, employers, banks etc. in cases concerning repayments if this is necessary to decide such cases.
 - If we or the municipal authorities have set up a case to check whether you are entitled to other benefits, we may share the necessary information about your case, e.g. the matter under investigation, and the steps taken so far. This also applies to cases which have been closed within the past six months.
 - For the purpose of checking if you are entitled to the benefit, we may combine our own information with any necessary non-sensitive personal data from other Danish or foreign authorities and unemployment funds. In certain cases, we may combine the results with information from PostNord or other postal operators.
 - We can inform pension institutions that you receive an income-related benefit, but not which benefit. We delete that information as soon as possible.
- If Udbetaling Danmark discloses information about you to an authority in a third country, we will do so based on current legislation and to ensure that your payments are or have been correct.

Udbetaling Danmark will store your information during the processing of the case and delete it five years after the case has been closed. The information is saved following the closing of the case due to rules in the Danish Limitation Act and the Danish Archiving Act etc.

Udbetaling Danmark may make decisions that are solely based on automated processing. The automated decisions are made e.g. by Udbetaling Danmark obtaining information from public registers that is combined automatically with information in your case and which together determines whether you are entitled to benefits.

Udbetaling Danmark may also process data for profiling automatically, i.e. to be able to predict certain behaviour.

What are your rights?

You may at any time withdraw your consent allowing Udbetaling Danmark to obtain information about you. You do so by contacting us. If you withdraw your consent, you may receive a rejection, get smaller payments or no longer be entitled to receive the benefit.

You may object to Udbetaling Danmark processing personal data about you.

You can get a copy of the information Udbetaling Danmark processes about you. You can also request:

- to have your personal data rectified or deleted
- to have the information sent to your or another
- that Udbetaling Danmark puts the processing of the information on hold.

Finally, you may object to Udbetaling Danmark making automated decisions.

Udbetaling Danmark is the data controller of the processing of the personal data we have received about you.

If you have questions

If you have any questions relating to your pension or Udbetaling Danmark's processing of your personal data, you can contact Udbetaling Danmark, Pension. You can do that at borger.dk/pension-kontakt or on the phone +45 70 12 80 61. If you write on the processing of personal data, then please write "Personal data" in the headline.

If you think that you have not received an adequate answer to your wish for access to your personal data or that Udbetaling Danmark has failed to comply with your rights, then you can contact the data protection officer at borger.dk/DPO-kontakt or telephone +45 70 11 12 13.

If you disagree with the way in which Udbetaling Danmark processes your personal data, you may submit a complaint to the Danish Data Protection Agency. Please note that the Danish Data Protection Agency is only a complaints body in respect of the processing of your personal data and not the handling of your benefits case. If you disagree with how Udbetaling Danmark is handling your benefits case, please contact Udbetaling Danmark.
