International Pension Change of foreign bank account

If you have a NemKonto and you have asked us to use NemKonto, we will automatically transfer your pension to your NemKonto. Please note that it is possible to register your foreign bank account as your NemKonto.

You can read more about this at www.nemkonto.dk.

If you do not have a NemKonto or if you want your pension paid to another bank account, you must fill out the form below.

Transferring pensions to an account in your country of residence

You can have your pension transferred to another account in your name or to an account that you are the co-owner of. It is a good idea to have the form approved by your bank before sending it to us. That allows you to verify that the information is correct.

There are fees when transferring to an account in your country of residence

Please note that if you choose transfer to an account in your country of residence, you must pay some fees yourself:

You must pay a fee for having your pension transferred from our bankers to your bank in your country of residence. The fee is either DKK 1.91 or DKK 4.91. Please note that there may be additional fees associated with transfers abroad. In addition, you may also be charged a bank fee if a transfer cannot be completed due to, for example, the wrong information being submitted. Neither Udbetaling Danmark nor our bankers have any influence on the size of this fee.
